LEE McCLOURE, a native of the San Francisco Bay Area and a resident of New York since the early 70's, is a graduate of the Conservatory of Music of Brooklyn College/CUNY. A member of ASCAP and a recipient of several ASCAP Special Awards in recent years, McClure's compositions have been performed by the Old First Orchestra of San Francisco, the National Association of Composers USA, and by the Eclectix! Chamber Orchestra of which he is the founder and director. Earlier this season the Eclectix! performance of McClure's "HIATUS" received favorable press in The New York Times. Along with today's premiere, recent works of his include a ballet, an opera, a choral work, and a premiere for the upcoming April 9th concert of Eclectix!
